

TECHNICAL REPORTS

1. Eiseman, N.J. and M.C. Benz. 1975. Marine algae of the Indian River. Species of the algal drift community collected from April 1974 to April 1975. 17 pp.
2. Mook, David. 1974. Preliminary biological studies in a Florida east coast canal. Presented to the 38th annual meeting of the Florida Academy of Sciences. March 1974. 23 pp.
3. Mook, David. 1975. Fouling community studies in the Indian River. Presented to the 39th annual meeting of the Florida Academy of Sciences. March 1975. 8 pp.
4. Fike, John W. and Robert B. Dolan. 1976. A submersible diving system for science. Offshore Technology Conference, 8th Annual. Proceedings. May 3-6, 1976. 10 pp.
5. Dolan, Robert. 1976. Aluminum hydrocrane for submersible operations. Offshore Technology Conference, 8th annual. Proceedings. May 3-6, 1976. 13 pp.
6. Wolcott, R. Timothy. 1976. Sieving precision and reproducibility: Sonic Sifter versus Ro-Tap; a comparative analysis of two sieve methods with the development of a sediment particle size frequency analysis format. 29 pp.
7. Wang, T.C. and J.P. Krivan, Jr. 1976. Air quality in a conference room.
8. Wang, T.C. and J.P. Krivan, Jr. 1976. The effectiveness of a method to control the dusting tendency of lithium hydroxide. 7 pp.
9. Becker, Linda J. 1976. A pictorial key and annotated species list of the mantis shrimp of the Indian River region of Florida. (Crustacea, Stomatopoda). 50 pp.
10. Thompson, M. John. 1976. Photomapping and species composition of the seagrass beds in Florida's Indian River estuary. 53 pp.
11. Zimmermann, Carl, Mary Price and John Montgomery. 1977. Operation, methods and quality control of Technicon AutoAnalyzer II systems for nutrient determinations in seawater. 55 pp.
12. Avent, R.M. 1976. Design and operational considerations for the scientific utilization of JOHNSON-SEA-LINK submersibles. 21 pp.
13. Tietze, Chris and Fay Field. 1976. Dynamic operation of a tethered submersible. 21 pp.

14. Williams, David. 1976. A method for predicting the turning rate of a submersible. 29 pp.
15. Bernard, Steven. 1977. A stress analysis of the submersible tracking and communications mast attached to SEA DIVER. Presented to SNAME - Southeast section, Riviera Beach, Florida. March 17, 1977. 32 pp.
16. Clayton, David L. 1977. Feasibility study: diver heating system for use aboard JOHNSON-SEA-LINK. Presented to SNAME - Southeast section. March 17, 1977. Riviera Beach, Florida. 29 pp.
17. Wilcox, J. Ross and R. Grant Gilmore. 1977. Some hydrological data from the Indian River between Sebastian and St. Lucie Inlets, Florida. January 1972 - February 1975. 106 pp.
18. Wang, T.C. 1978. CO<sub>2</sub> scrubber design analysis for a mini-submarine. Working Diver Symposium. March 7-8, 1978. Columbus, Ohio.
19. Cook, Roger W. and Jeffrey R. Prentice. 1978. Monitor mission. Working Diver Symposium. March 7-8, 1978. Columbus, Ohio. 12 pp.
20. Holt, John K. 1978. The development and use of an equipment retrieval reel. Presented to SNAME - Gulf section. March 31, 1978. New Orleans, Louisiana. 9 pp.
21. Cook, Roger W. and Jeffrey R. Prentice. 1978. An evaluation of diving and submersible systems. Presented to the MONITOR National Conference, April 2-3, 1978. Raleigh, North Carolina. 20 pp.
22. Hucks, Michael W., Gary N. Peterson and John R. Montgomery. 1978. The analysis of cadmium, chromium, copper, iron, lead and manganese in estuarine waters. 65 pp.
23. Thompson, M. John. 1978. Variations in the spectral signature of a subtropical estuarine inlet. Technical Proceedings: American Society of Photogrammetry. Fall, 1978. Albuquerque, New Mexico. 10 pp.
24. Cohen, Michael L. 1978. Series II cable cutter: evaluation and test report. 54 pp.
25. Avent, R.M. and F.G. Stanton. 1979. Observations from research submersibles of megafaunal distributions on the continental margin of central eastern Florida. 48 pp.
26. Schudel, Gregg William. 1979. A design project to increase the performance of the JOHNSON-SEA-LINK submersibles. 58 pp.

27. Thompson, M. John, Lewis E. Gilliland and John E. Mendlein. 1979. Bathymetric mapping of three selected areas on the southeastern Florida continental shelf. 60 pp.
28. Kalajian, E.H. and D.L. Clayton. 1979. Launch and recovery system for JOHNSON-SEA-LINK I and II; status and recommendations. 64 pp.
29. Clark, Andrew M. 1979. Total carbon system automation; working model design and construction. 48 pp.
30. Cohen, Michael L. 1979. The Harbor Branch Foundation arc light; a comprehensive report. 50 pp.
31. Eiseman, N.J. 1980. An illustrated guide to the seagrasses of the Indian River region of Florida. 25 pp.
32. Zimmermann, Carl F. 1980. Sediment size analysis of sediments collected from Halodule wrightii seagrass beds. 35 pp.
33. Watts, Gordon P., Roger Cook and Kenneth Morris. 1980. Preliminary report: archaeological and engineering expedition, Monitor Marine Sanctuary - August 1-26, 1979. 38 pp.
34. Kerr, George. 1980. Low frequency current variability on the continental shelf off Ft. Pierce, Florida. 99 pp.
35. Schmid, Jonathan D. 1980. CORD II: A technical summary of an unmanned, tethered observation and rescue submersible. 86 pp.
36. Carlton, Dwayne L. 1980. Alternative design of hydraulic manifold housing assembly JOHNSON-SEA-LINK submersible. 12 pp.
37. Wilson, Debra L. 1980. Sea current generator. 35 pp.
38. Peterson, Gary N. 1981. The determination of organic carbon in seawater. 75 pp.
39. Moore, Ellen C. 1981. RAM (Rotary actuated manipulator). 37 pp.
40. Holt, John K. 1982. Resurrecting the electric shrimp trawl as part of a fresh approach to increased fishing efficiency. Proceedings Fishing Industry Energy Conservation Conference 26-27 October 1981, Seattle, Washington. pp. 83-94. 12 pp.

41. Gilmore, R. Grant, Christopher J. Donohoe, Douglas W. Cooke and David J. Herrema. 1981. Fishes of the Indian River lagoon, Florida. 70 pp.
42. Watts, Gordon P. 1982. Investigating the remains of the U.S.S. Monitor: a final report on the 1979 site testing in the Monitor Marine Sanctuary. North Carolina Division of Archives and History and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. 158 pp.
43. Stewart, Ken. 1981. Initial steps towards a performance evaluation of the JOHNSON-SEA-LINK hydrocrane system. 74 pp.
44. Stewart, Ken. 1982. A system for dynamic stress analysis of a launch and recovery crane at sea with some preliminary results. 19 pp.
45. Wang, T.C. 1982. Life support materials in a manned submersible. 62 pp.
46. Mikkelsen, Paul S. and Robert W. Virnstein. 1982. An illustrated glossary of polychaete terms. 94 pp.
47. Wang, T.C. 1983. Removal of trihalomethanes from drinking water. 110 pp.
48. Clayton, David, Jeff Prentice and Chris Tietze. 1983. An ROV system for use in high current conditions. 12 pp.
49. Czvekus, William E. 1983. JOHNSON-SEA-LINK II lock-out chamber penetrator plate strain gage analysis. 16 pp.
50. Czvekus, William. 1983. Biological sampling equipment for the monitoring of waste sites. 19 pp.
51. Wang, Tsen C. 1984. Chloramine pilot plant study. 38 pp.
52. Tusting, Robert and Simon Sainsbury. 1984. JOHNSON-SEA-LINK - data logging system user's manual. 127 pp.
53. Cook, R.W., R.S. Jones and J.R. Prentice. 1984. The R/V SEWARD JOHNSON; a new, state-of-the-art submersible support ship. (Presented at Oceans '84). 9 pp.
54. Wang, T.C., R. Lenahan, M. Kanik and J. TenEyck. 1984. Case study-trichloroethylene groundwater contamination at Vero Beach, Florida.
55. Virnstein, Robert W., Kalani D. Cairns, Mary Ann Capone and Paul S. Mikkelsen. 1985. Harbortown Marina seagrass study. 23 pp.
56. Tusting, Robert F. and Lawrence D. Taylor. 1985. Submersible-mounted electro-sampler for use in fresh water. 23 pp.

57. Clark, Andrew M. 1985. A marine biological sampling device. (MBSD) 29 pp.
58. Schmalz, Mark S. 1986. WINDSTAU - Numerical modelling of continental shelf circulation with sigma coordinates. 40 pp.
59. Caimi, Frank M. and Robert F. Tusting. 1987. Underwater laser systems. 34 pp.
60. Tucker, J.W., Jr., C.Q. Thompson, T.C. Wang, R.A. Lenahan, B.E. Faulkner, and T. E. Kadlac. 1985. Effects of organophosphorous mosquito adulticides on hatching fish larvae, other estuarine zooplankton, and juvenile fish. Final report to the Florida Office of Entomology. 100 pp.
61. Tucker, J.W., Jr., C.Q. Thompson, T.C. Wang, R.A. Lenahan, and T.E. Kadlac. 1986. Effects of organophosphorous mosquito adulticides on hatching fish larvae, other estuarine zooplankton, and juvenile fish. Final report to the Office of Entomology. 55 pp.
- 62-69. Numbers not assigned.
70. Laughlin, Roy B., Jr., Peter Pendoley, Gail Woon, Elizabeth Bokman and Thomas Chiles. 1988. Toxicity of tributyltin to marine bivalves. Final Report to the Office of Naval Research. Contract # N0004-86-K-0184. 41 pp.
71. Wang, Tsen C. 1990. Quality control and quality assurance manual for the determination of volatile organic contaminants. Submitted to the Florida State Department of Environmental Regulation. 105 pp.
72. Vaughan, D., L. Creswell and M. Pardee. 1987-1988. A manual for farming the hard shell clam in Florida. (Aquaculture Report Series). 47 pp.
73. Vaughan, D.E. and L.R. Creswell. 1988-1989. Aquaculture Market Development Aid Program (AMDAP). Final report: Contract no. 00030. (Aquaculture Report Series). 27 pp.
74. Creswell, L., D. Vaughan and L. Sturmer. 1990. Manual for the cultivation of the American oyster, Crassostrea virginica, in Florida. (Aquaculture Report Series). 52 pp.
75. Smith, Ned P. and Patrick A. Pitts. 1994. Semidiurnal and diurnal tidal constituents in Florida Bay. 29 pp.
76. Smith, Ned P. and Patrick A. Pitts. 1995. Final report: Long-term transport patterns in Florida Bay. 43 pp.
77. Pitts, Patrick A. and Ned P. Smith. 1995. Long-term net transport through three tidal channels in the interior of Florida Bay. 52 pp.

78. Smith, Ned P. and Patrick A. Pitts. 1995. Low-frequency tidal and seasonal water level variations in Florida Bay. 53 pp.

79. Hanisak, M. Dennis and Laura S. Overdorf. 1998. Benthic coral reef algal communities at and near ship grounding sites in the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary. Final report submitted to NOAA's Sanctuaries and Reserves Division and the NOAA National Undersea Research Program's National Undersea Research Center at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. 63 pp.

80. Scarpa, John, Leroy Creswell and David Vaughan. 1994. The identification of marine aquaculture products and producers. Final report submitted to the Florida Department of Environmental Regulation, Bureau of Marine Resource Regulation and Development. 89 pp.

81. Reed, John K., Michelle Kelly-Borges, Kathleen E. Janda and Sherry A. Reed. 1997. Collections of marine organisms for research on natural products chemistry and biodiversity: a survey of the benthic communities with emphasis on Porifera, Octocorals and algae from the reefs and grassbeds of Bootless Bay, Papua New Guinea, January 22-31, 1994. 77 pp.

82. Reed, John K. 1997. Final cruise report: submersible and scuba collections around Little Bahama Bank, and Bahama Islands: Biomedical and biodiversity research of the benthic communities with emphasis on Porifera and Gorgonacea, April 26 – May 2, 1995, Research Vessel EDWIN LINK, JOHNSON-SEA-LINK I research submersible. 51 pp.

83. Reed, John K. and Shirley Pomponi. 1997. Final cruise report: submersible and scuba collections in the coastal waters of the Bahama Islands and Florida's Oculina coral banks: Biomedical and biodiversity research of the benthic communities with emphasis on Porifera and Gorgonacea, October 25-31, 1996, Research Vessel EDWIN LINK, JOHNSON-SEA-LINK I research submersible. 85 pp.

84. Reed, John K. and Shirley Pomponi. 1997. Preliminary cruise report: Submersible and scuba collections in the coastal waters of Honduras, The Bay Islands: Biomedical and biodiversity research of the benthic communities with emphasis on the Porifera, Algae and Gorgonacea. 44 pp.

85. Pitts, Patrick A. and Ned P. Smith. 1997. An analysis of historical meteorological data from the Florida Keys and current meter data from three tidal channels in lower Biscayne Bay. 42 pp.

86. Pitts, Patrick A. and Ned P. Smith. 1997. Net transport through three tidal channels in northern and northeastern Florida Bay. 29 pp.

87. Das, Partha S. 2000. Redesign of JOHNSON-SEA-LINK acrylic submersible for manned operation to 3000 ft. (914.4 m) ocean depth. Final report, HARBOR BRANCH oceanographic institution Project number CM006.1. 75 pp.

88. Olson, Scott. 2000. Design report for the American Bureau of Shipping: 50° conical opening penetrators for the JOHNSON-SEA-LINK MK V acrylic pilot sphere. 24 pp. text, 17 pp. charts. 44 pp.

89. Jaramillo, Juan C. 1996. Microalgae culture protocol. HBOI Aquaculture Division. 35 pp.
